

The Autumn Conference for Research Master Students in Philosophy.
Theme: Normativity
November 15 -17
Kontakt der Kontinenten, Soesterberg, The Netherlands

Program

Thursday 15

- 13.00 Arrival & welcome
- 14.00 The History of the Is/Ought Debate, a lecture by Han van Ruler (EUR)
- 14.45 Break
- 15.15 Workshop on the History of the Is/Ought Debate
- 16.15 Break
- 16.45 Preparing to Present at a Conference, an instruction by Gijs van Donselaar (UvA)
- 18.00 Dinner
- 20.00 Cultural Program: Surprise (Dutch spoken; Translation available)
- 21.30 Q&A

Friday 16

- 8.00 Breakfast
- 10.00 Sources of Normativity and the Binding force of Norms, in Practical Philosophy, a lecture by Joel Anderson (UU)
- 10.45 Break
- 11.15 A workshop on the Sources of Normativity and the Binding Force of Norms, in Practical Philosophy
- 12.30 Lunch + Two Alumni talk: Thomas & Nikki
- 14.15 Academic Writing, a workshop by Marjan Slob
- 18.00 Dinner
- 19.30 On Publication Strategies, an Instruction by Martin Peterson (TUE)
- 21.00 Social Program

Saturday 17

- 8.30 Breakfast
- 9.30 Norms for Truth and Truth as a Norm, a lecture by Dora Achourioti (UvA/ILLC)
- 10.00 Break
- 10.30 A workshop on Normativity and Truth
- 12.00 Goodbye

Literature to prepare:

For the Thursday workshop: Peter Singer, "Morality, Reason, and the Rights of Animals", from Frans de Waal, Primates and Philosophers, Princeton: Princeton UP, 2006, 140-158.

For the Friday workshop: Robert Brandom "Autonomy, Community, and Freedom"

<http://www.pitt.edu/~brandom/downloads/AII2%20ACF%2008-3-11%20b.doc>

For the Saturday workshop: No text preparation is required